"I have known and worked closely with Kelly Walsh and Chief Dan Jones many times during my career. Their unique combination of fire service HR management, instruction, and leadership experience makes this educational opportunity both practical and essential for current and future fire officers."

*--Dennis Compton, Fire Chief
Mesa, Ariz. (Ret)*

BRAVE FIRE LEADER ACADEMY

Ignite the greatness inside you.

01

We train staff hard and prepare everyone for every possible emergency the field could throw us. Then we promote people to officer levels – and the training isn't necessarily consistent or even right to help leaders "Off the Fire Ground." National training is available to a few lucky ones, but how do we get good, consistent information into the hands of leaders right now? That's why we are here with training that meets you and your leaders where you are.

ONLINE

05

Online Leadership Training, available anytime, from anywhere at your pace.

Since not all future fire department leaders have the time or the financial support to travel to national leadership training programs, we have created this online program to bring our acclaimed training to you and taught by two acclaimed fire leadership experts, Kelly Walsh and Chief Dan Jones.

BRAVEFIRELEADER.COM

- ✓ Self-Paced, work from anywhere at your own speed. Or, join a Cohort for a more structured approach with group learning
- ✓ Benefit from video classes of live-in-person events. Two levels of certificate programs available.
- ✓ Alumni get access to a private facebook group where they can interact with other leaders from departments around the country to share best practices, ask questions and network.

WHAT THEY SAY

Charles Mead,
Engineer/CEP
Pinetop Fire
Department

"Kelly and Dan: a fantastic team! They bring leadership training to a completely different level and add a view, unlike any other leadership training I have ever attended. Kelly's lifetime experience in both Fire Department Human Resource and the real-world adds a unique twist when facing those difficult conversations that front-line Officers and your Command staff are presented with. Dan has the love and passion for the Fire Service as a retired Fire Chief. Yet his "real to himself and those he serves" attitude strengthens and causes you to look inwardly to grow into a better Officer. I highly recommend this course for any individuals looking to enhance their leadership skill sets."

Kevin Johnson,
Training Chief,
Hall County Fire
Services,
Gainesville, GA

"Kelly and Dan are experts of their discipline and were able to delve into the issues of several departments at one time. Well planned, expertly organized, and the entire program implemented with making the audience think about our actions in the field."
